

This comment is regarding keeping K-Love radio stations up and running. K-Love is a breath of fresh air to me and to this community. The station is definitely in the public interest because there is no lewd or crude words in commentary or music. The message is encouraging and so necessary everywhere it is heard. There is no other broadcast in this area that can fill the K-Love spot. K-Love is a blessing. Please do not take it away!